Numb. 3243

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday December 7. to Thursday December 10. 1696.

Madrid, November 22. N. S.

THE King of Spain is recovered of his late Illneſs, his Fever having quite left him. The Queen is likewiſe very well again. An Advice-Boat that was ſent to cruize near the Azores Iſlands, to look for the Flota from the Weſt-Indies, is returned to Cadiz; The Commander gives an account, That on the 21th of September he ſaw off the Iſland of Flores a Squadron of 13 great Ships; and on the 17th of October ſeveral of them again off the Iſland Santta Maria, being ſeparated in bad Weather, and having received much damage. He kept Company with them ſeveral days, but at laſt loſt them in a Storm: This is ſuppoſed to have been the Squadron commanded by Monſieur Chaſteaurenaut, which is ſince returned to Breſt. The Spaniſh Armada, commanded by the Conde de Hermanunes, continues to cruize off Cape St. Vincent, which makes us think the Flota is ſtill expected this year. An Order has been lately publiſhed at Cadiz, which gives leave to export the Silver that ſhall be brought home in the ſaid Flota, upon paying a Duty of 3 per Cent. The 6th arrived at Cadiz an Engliſh Ship, called the Thomas, Capt. Pye Commander, in 7 Months from Bombay in the Eaſt-Indies.

Milan, Nov. 20. Several Regiments of the German Forces continue ſtill in this Country, by reaſon of the Difficulties which the Seaſon of the Year occaſions in their march. Prince Eugene of Savoy is now here, but intends to ſet out in few days on his Journey to Vienna. The Diſcourſe continues, that moſt of the Spaniſh Troops at preſent in this Country, will be ſent to Catalonia againſt the next Summer.

Turin, Nov. 22. The Duke of Savoy has disbanded ſome of his Troops. Part of the French Forces that were lately in Italy, are marched towards the Frontiers of Catalonia, and the reſt towards Burgundy and Alſace. Some are of Opinion that Mareſchal Catinat will command the French Army in Catalonia the next Campaign.

Vienna, Nov. 28. The Elector of Saxony, who went hence the laſt Week to paſs ſome days in Hunting on the other ſide of the Danube, (which occaſioned a report of his being gone home) returned hither laſt Sunday. The Imperial Officers are ordered to haſten their Recruits. The Emperor has reſolved to augment his Forces both on the Rhine and in Hungary againſt the next Year. The Elector of Saxony is to have again the chief Command of the latter. The Letters from Hungary bring no manner of News; telling us only, That all our Troops are in their Winter Quarters. Orders are given to go on with the New Fortifications of Peter-Waradin, as faſt as the Weather will permit.

Francfort, December 5. The Differences between the Palatine and Heſſien Troops are again accommodated; and they are marching home, except ſome Palatin Regiments, who are to be Quarter'd near the Neckar. Prince Lewis of Baden lies ill of the Gout at Guntzburgh, which hinders his Journey to Vienna. We hear that the Emperor will augment his Forces on the Rhine with 12000 Men againſt the next Summer.

Cologne, Dec. 7. They continue to make Levies in theſe Parts for the Service of the Republick of Venice. The Brandenburg Troops that have their Winter Quarters in this Dioceſs, ſend out Parties frequently to make Excurſions upon the Enemy in the Country of Limburgh.

Hamburgh, Dec. 7. The Matters in Diffesence between Denmark and Holſtein are not yet adjuſted. Some Daniſh Troops have lately poſted themſelves in the Neighbourhood of Lubecke, which the Magiſtrates of that City have complained of to the Miniſters of Denmark; and the Duke of Zell, as Colonel of the Circle of the Lower Saxony, has writ to the King of Denmark to deſire he will order his Troops to remove out of the Territories of the ſaid City. We hear, That a Treaty is concluded between the King of Denmark and the Allies. The laſt Letters from Poland ſay, That the Queen and Prince James were reconciled: The Diviſion of the laſt King's Eſtate was finally agreed on, and he was going to take Poſſeſſion of that part which is fallen to him in Lithuania. His Party in the meantime encreaſes, and by all that yet appears, he has a very good proſpect of ſucceeding in his Pretenſion to the Crown.

Paris, Dec. 7. Here is much talk that the King of Denmark is entred into the Alliance againſt this Crown, and ſome pretend to ſay, That Orders are, or will be given very ſuddenly, to ſtop the Daniſh Ships that are in the French Ports. 'Tis ſaid, that the French King has ordered Commiſſions to be diſpatched, for forming 50 Battalions of the Militia who were employed on the Coaſts the laſt Summer, into Regiments, and taking them into his own Pay. The States of Languedoc have given a Free Gift of three Millions of Livres, beſides One Million and Nine hundred Livres which they are to pay for their ſhare of the Poll-Tax; and 75 thouſand Livres for the Fortifications that are making at the Port of Cete. Some other Edicts have been Publiſhed here this week for the raiſing of Money; and 'tis ſaid, that the Funds for the next year are all ſettled. We have yet no News of Monſieur Pointy's being ſailed with the Squadron he commands from Breſt; The advices from thence ſay, there are Embarked 3000 Land Soldiers on theſe Ships, with a great quantity of Bombs and Ammunition. The two young Princes of Poland brought with them a great Sums of Money in Gold, and have ſince had further Sums remitted to them, amounting together to above 3 Millions and a half of Livres, which they intend to lay out in making Purchaſes in this Kingdom. The Princeſs of Savoy entred yeſterday into her 11th year, and received